Student teaching will be combined with educational assistant duties from September to March and the successful candidate shall be prepared to participate in a practicum at another school to broaden his/her teaching experiences. The successful candidate must be able to handle the academic rigor of university courses offered through The Program for the Education of Native Teachers (P.E.N.T.) at Brandon University beginning in April 2020.

QUALIFICATIONS:

Interested applicants must meet the following qualifications:

- Be a local resident of the community.
- Have a high school or mature student diploma.
- Preferably be employed or have employment experience as an Educational Assistant.
- Excellent interpersonal, verbal, and written communication skills.
- Positive role model.
- Demonstrated work history – reliable and punctual.
- Interest and aptitude in literacy, numeracy, science, and technology areas.
- Ability to work collaboratively as a school team member in a professional manner under the guidance of teachers and administrators.
- Willingness to participate in co-curricular activities.
- Interest and commitment to PENT training (5 to 6 year program).
- Availability to study at Brandon University during the months of April to July, and will be required to complete distance education courses during the school year.
- Agree to work a minimum of three years for Frontier School Division after PENT graduation and teacher certification.
